Hacks for Humanity 2016
Sponsorship Proposal

HfH

"Participation from a diverse group of people in a platform such as Hacks for Humanity creates a paradigm shift in technology development, giving everyday people the power to co-build the 'next big thing' that may affect our lives." – Pat Pataranutaporn, inaugural hackathon participant, ASU Biology Major, and Humanity X co-founder

Support Levels:

	$2500	$5000	$10000

Recognized on Hacks for Humanity webpage with 5K views
Included in all media/press releases
Brand/logo featured on Hacks for Humanity webpage & related social media for 3 months
Featured speaker during a lunch session
Brand/logo featured on all event marketing materials
Table allocated for marketing/collateral and participant outreach
Company banners displayed at venue
Brand/logo featured on background slides throughout hackathon
Brand/logo featured on Hacks for Humanity webpage & related social media for 6 months
Featured speaker during an opening session
Company recruiters present on site
Demonstrations and products sold on site
Seat on final judging panel
Brand/logo featured on Hacks for Humanity webpage & related social media for 1 year
Featured speaker at event breakout tech talk (45 minutes)
Featured speaker and presenter at the closing awards ceremony
Access to mailing list containing all hackathon participants
Priority selection of vendor location with event tabling
Exclusive rights as sole vendor in your market
Acknowledged as grand prize sponsor in pre-and post-event materials